The Writing Program

OFFICE: Building 410, University Center

Each student must complete a two-course sequence in Warren Writing (10A and 10B) within four quarters (following successful completion of the Subject A requirement). Note: Effective fall quarter 2000, all new and continuing students are required to complete Warren writing courses only at UCSD. The purpose of the sequence is to teach and thereby enable students, through intensive practice, to read critically and write appropriately in a variety of academic contexts. Classes are seminar-size and center on discussion of student work.

The two-quarter sequence emphasizes written argumentation based on primary and secondary sources. The curriculum provides a context within which a diversity of cultural experiences is foregrounded to address a range of issues inherent in the relationship of the "Individual and U.S. Society," the primary theme of the sequence. The readings are accessible, scholarly writings that interrogate aspects of this relationship, and may include novels, short stories, essays, autobiographies, political documents, and book-length nonfictional treatments of the theme. Thus, the writing and readings prepare students for their work in various academic disciplines.

In both 10A and 10B, student writing is duplicated and discussed by the class in a workshop setting. Instructors hold conferences with students individually during the quarter and provide written and oral commentaries on student work. Every student receives a mid-quarter evaluation, and a final narrative evaluation is placed in the student's academic file. The minimum writing requirement is 8,000 words per quarter. Warren Writing 10A and 10B are offered P/NP only, and students cannot test out of this general-education requirement.

10A-10B. The Writing Course (4-4)

A workshop course in reading and writing required of all Warren College students. The course emphasizes argumentation and critical writing based on sources.

Prerequisite: satisfaction of the university Subject A requirement.

Warren Honors Program

OFFICE: 3238 Literature Building, Second Floor,
Warren College

The Warren Honors Program offers students educational, cultural, and social experiences designed to broaden their intellectual interests. The activities vary each year and are planned to foster student interaction and promote a sense of community.

Students may replace one course in a minor, program of concentration, or area study with a faculty-directed Independent Study (199) honors research paper. If the research paper is written within the student's major, departmental approval may be needed for acceptance toward major requirements. The paper may also be written as part of an Academic Internship (197). The Michael Addison award is presented at the graduation ceremony to the student who is judged to have written the most distinguished research paper in the Honors Program.

Entering freshmen with a high school GPA of 3.8 or above and SAT I scores of 700 verbal/ 700 mathematics, SAT II writing score of 700, are eligible to participate in the Honors Program. Students remain in the program until thirty-six units of UCSD credit are completed. After that, a cumulative GPA of 3.5 on all units completed at UCSD must be maintained to remain in the program.

Students who do not qualify for the Honors Program at the time of admission may join it as soon as a cumulative GPA of 3.5 is attained on thirty-six or more units completed at UCSD. Entering transfer students with a GPA of 3.8 based on at least thirty-six quarter-units of college work are also eligible.

Warren Scholars Seminar

The Warren Scholars Seminar offers an interdisciplinary academic curriculum which is designed to help students broaden their intellectual interests. Students enroll in two seminars, Warren 11A-B, Warren Scholars Seminar, which fulfill the college writing requirement. The seminars are taught by a variety of distinguished faculty and teaching assistants.

Entering freshman Honors Program students are admitted to the Warren Scholars Seminar by invitation.

Students in the Honors Program may participate in teaching assistant apprenticeships (Warren 195, Apprentice Teaching) in Warren 11A and B. Teaching assistants participate in planning and developing the seminars. They interview the faculty speakers, are trained to lead group discussions, read and evaluate student papers, and plan social events for the class.
